Water Skills Academy  http://www.waterskillsacademy.com/	 Ben Longhurst	Water Skills Academy (WSA) was born out of a desire amongst experienced watersports participants and trainers with the aim to amalgamate some of the most popular watersports courses and qualifications under one umbrella. WSA is continually evolving, learning and developing new products. Currently WSA offers instructor qualifications, workshops, schools/centre accreditation, mentoring and consultancy across the disciplines of SUP, surfing, lifeguarding, sit on top kayaking and coasteering. Over the years, through the many different ways we have accessed the ocean, open water and rivers we have learnt our trade from lots of different sources and sharing our knowledge is one of our goals. For those who wish to start coaching we aim to equip you with the skills in your chosen discipline to run sessions safely and informatively for both public and friends or family. Our Mission: Training and guiding others on and in our oceans and waterways, ensuring respect, recognising our privilege and taking accountability for the planet – we live and play on.
